LUC VANDERVELDE LUX

IN/BETWEEN 'a slow attention'

4 april – 11 may 2015

We are pleased to present our first solo exhibition with Belgian artist Luc Vandervelde Lux (°1969).

...The tape reels have dust tracks and lie untouched on the rack waiting, exchanged for bashing, plastic bags, blankets, cloths and cardboard. Literally, the readymade materials from the outside world are being framed, listed and placed under tension. The viewer gets confused, front and back of the artwork are almost indistinguishable and receive equal status of constructed architectural space. Gradually they have no more reason to be glued to the wall and the structures move in space.

Sculptural aspects develop from the materiality as a natural evolution in the realization of his work over time. Bamboo structures are literally shipped from his residence (former; in China) to be used for his exhibition racks. His early training as an interior design architect has the chance to become part of his creative proces....
